Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE

Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000,00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other injurious, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever; and that Mr. Bok's malicious statements were wholly and absolutely false.

In the retraction printed by said Journal they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription," from eminent chemists all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohol or any of the alleged harmful drugs.

These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their base slanders were refuted.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in fact, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these Nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

THE LOVING TRIAL.

Every individual of our communities who has grown up to the age of mature observation, inquiry and considerate reflection under the influences of wholesome parental instruction and the religious admonitions of the churches, is supposed to become fully aware of the great moral and religious necessity of curbing the passions to the end that there may be no infringements of the rights of others, no offences against the laws, no commission of acts through the wrong impulses of hatred, revenge or avarice; and according to the fundamental obligations imposed upon all who become responsible members of the human compact every member of that compact is in duty bound to be an exemplar of equity, justice and christian forbearance. If this duty were fully and conscientiously recognized and fulfilled the status of all our communities would be far nearer the millennial type than at the present time, but theories are far in advance of practices,

Nearly two thousand years have passed since the Christ of Judea proclaimed to the world the great doctrines of love, charity, forbearance and good will for the government of all its nations, tribes, kindreds and peoples, but in their waywardness and perverse inclinations they have been slow to accept the benefactions which His mission and subline teachings made possible for their advantage. Our land is filling up with churches. Our age is one of religious organizations, zealous and aggressive ostensibly, for the cause of the Master, but the statistics of misdemeanors as currently published in the newspapers denote a widespread disregard of moral and religious obligations, not only in the lower levels of society but among high social and official grades of life. There is a spirit of unrest pervading all classes of our people and mainly due to the inordinate greed for gain which in so many instances, is over-stepping the bounds of fair and honorable competition and usages of strict integrity and setting pernicious examples which sooner or later will bring their harvests of evil consequences. There is a growing disposition to under value usages which the trial and experience of generations of our ancestors proved of sufficient value and usefulness to be revered and cherished for generations to come. This disposition is evident in the common plea of manslayers and assassins when arraigned for trial by a jury, that their offences or crimes were unjustifiable, inasmuch as they were only just visitations of vengeance for injured honor, character or deprivation of life. This was the plea of Judge Loving just tried and acquitted in Halifax county, Virginia, for the murder of Theodore Estes. He averred that his daughter had been drugged and assaulted by her companion Estes, although he had had only a vague hearsay evidence of the matter and he believed in the frenzied and abnormal condition of his mind that he and no one else was the commissioned authority to kill at the moment the man so accused. This plea the judge and jury accepted as the main ground and principle for the determination of the case, and the verdict of acquittal from the day the jurors were empaneled and sworn was a forgone conclusion. The court simply affirmed and approved the hasty, unwarranted act of the killing by Loving and unblushingly reaffirmed the verdict in the case of the Strothers and proclaimed by their action to the world the righteousness of the new heresy of the "higher law" that every man in Virginia might henceforth, for a real or fancied provocation constitute himself for the moment a proper court with law unto himself to seize a shotgun or bowie knife and make due and ample reparation for the offence.

The Loving trial from beginning to end was a farce and the empty, disgraceful proceedings might well have been dispensed with altogether, so far as the majesty of jurisprudence was involved and the unnecessary expense attending them amounting to well nigh two thousand dollars been expended on the improvement of the highways, the helping of the poor or the promotion of general education. If such farcical proceedures are to meet with the approval and passive toleration of our people will not the safety and peace of all our communities be ultimately imperiled, and an invitation be given to lawlessness and anarchy? We are living too fast and too recklessly. We are breaking away from wholesale usages and traditions, and drifting into dangerous elements. In the universal greed for gain at all costs—in the senseless indulgence of lawless, crazing passions—in the lessening of wholesome parental and home restraints and in the clamor and demands of government officials and all classes of workers and laborers for increase of pay when they are already receiving far better compensation than ever before, there are signs and premonitions which we will all do well to heed. While we have statutes for the punishment of crimes it is the duty of all good citizens, whether serving as judges, counsel or jurors, to act conscientiously without heeding a neighborhood clamor or deferring to a "higher law" which is only another name for revenge. Trolly Car Jumps the Track.

Heavily laden with passengers who were enjoying an outing, an open trolly car on the Fairmont and Clarksburg Traction Company's system jumped the track on the Grasseli Division, just outside of Clarksburg, W. Va., last night and crashed over an embankment, instantly killing two, fatally injuring one and seriously injuring nine others.

How the car left the track is a mystery the traction company officials cannot explain. It was running uphill around a curve and going at moderate speed. After bounding along the ties for a short distance the car went over the embankment and landed on its side, pinning the dead and injured underneath.

I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. "It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1907.

MR. FRANK B. WILLIAMS, millionaire lumberman, member from Louisiana of the national republican committee and chairman of the State committee, will head the G. O. P. ticket in Louisiana at the primary this fall. At a love feast in New Orleans attended exclusively by the lily white faction Mr. Williams was declared the nominee for governor and a decision reached to put a full State ticket in the field. The lily whites, who have formed a stock company with $250,000 capital, will soon launch a morning paper in New Orleans. With a united party they hope to do more than roll up the 10 per cent. vote required by law to be recognized as a political party. It will be remembered that Mr. Park Agnew, of this city, when he was chairman of the Virginia State republican committee, tried the "lily white" scheme and was succeeding fairly well when he was called down by President Roosevelt, so Mr. Williams had better take warning. In passing, it can be stated that that $250,000 capital to start a republican daily paper in New Orleans will melt like snow under a tropical sun. Such a scheme was also tried in Roanoke, Virginia, a few years ago with most disastrous results to the stockholders.

CHICAGO has not had a sensation for weeks that compared with that it experienced Saturday when it gazed upon Mr. John D. Rockefeller in the witness chair in the United States Court. Mr. Rockefeller's knowledge of dividends paid by the Standard Oil Company was tolerably full, but he knew very little about the relations between the company and other companies which are supposed to be subsidiary to it, or aliases under which it operates in different lines or over various sections of territory. Some of his partners have told the public that the head of the concern had not been actively engaged in conducting its business for ten or a dozen years, and this seems to be justified by the scantiness of his answers after swearing to tell the truth. In fact the courts knew just as much about Mr. Rockefeller's affairs before he took the witness stand as they did afterwards and the whole proceedings seem to have been a farce.

THE HOT weather is upon us and all are cautioned to avoid the sun's rays as much as possible, wear light clothing, be temperate in eating and drinking and observe the usual hygienic laws. It should be the duty of the city authorities to keep the streets and alleys clean; to see that no garbage accumulates in back yards; that no hogpens are allowed to find a place in the city limits and to enforce the sanitary laws generally. Alexandria is naturally a healthy city and can be kept so with a little trouble and expense.

MR. EDWARD W. PARKER, the coal expert of the United States Geological Survey, says at our present rate of consumption there will be no anthracite coal left in 75 years. A few months ago some other expert stated that there was still enough coal left to last two thousand years, but be it seventy-five or two thousand, there are few people now living who will care anything about coal seventy-five years hence.

PRESIDENT UNDERWOOD, of the Erie Railroad, says that his company has 32,000 tons of steel rails distributed along the roadways of its system between Chicago and New York, but fears to lay for fear they may break under the hammering of fast trains and heavy locomotives. Similar conditions are known to prevail on other lines, and this situation was brought to the attention of the steel rail manufacturers in a recent conference.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 8.

The war spirit is growing. Naval and army officers are using the Japanese situation as almost the sole topic of social discussion. Opinion is divided, as to the outcome of sending the fleet of battleships to the Pacific. If Japan thinks that she can whip the United States," remarked a prominent naval officer today, "I should not be surprised if she were to regard the projected movement of the battleship fleet to the Pacific as a hostile act, and declare war. If, after measuring her own strength, financial and physical, she decided that she might get the worst of it, she will accept the movement as it is intended by the United States, and make no fuss over it. But the traditional friendship between the two governments has been broken. They will never again, in my opinion, be on the same close terms as heretofore. The incident will rankle. And, some day, especially if the United States should become involved with another power, the feeling aroused now may burst out into open enmity. It is ridiculous for Japan to see any overact in this transfer of the fleet, just as it was for her people to try to make a grave international question out of the riotious acts of a mob in San Francisco. Japan can take exception to this disposition of the American ships, only in case she herself has sinister designs. If she is really friendly, as I believe she is, her susceptibilities will not be aroused. I see that a Tokio dispatch recalls that when, in January, Japan proposed to send a cruiser squadron to San Francisco, on a friendly visit, an indirect hint from the United States that it might not be opportune, on account of the recent excitement over the school question, caused them to change their plans. The inference is that a similar hint ought to prevent the sailing of Admiral Evans's fleet to the Pacific. It is hardly necessary to point out that there is no paralell in the two cases. We are sending our ships to our own waters; Japan was intending to visit us". Continuing, he said that he deprecated the sensational publications predicting the possibility of war with Japan, first, because they might be taken too seriously as representing the real sentiment of this country, and, second, because they were liable to strengthen the jingoes of Japan and weaken the existing friendly administration of that empire. It appears that the famous trip of the Oregon, during the Spanish-American war, when she sailed from San Francisco to Key West in sixty-three days, is to be duplicated by the battleship fleet. The sixteen ships are to make a demonstration to the world of the speed with which the American navy can transfer its fighting strength from one ocean to the other. With this point in view, there will be few, if any, stops to pay visits of courtesy to the capitals of the South American States. What stops are made, will be for the business of coaling. It is understood that the ships will sail in four divisions of four each, with a day or two interval between each division. The rendezvous willl probably be in Magdalena Bay.

Rear Admiral Brownson, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, just returned from Oyster Bay, where he was called by the President to talk over the plans for the proposed transfer of the navy from the Atlantic to the Pacific, said today. "The fleet will hardly move south before October. There has been no change in the plans for the regular summer and fall maneuvers of the Atlantic fleet and they will be carried out as originally planned." Rear Admiral Brownson, who was entitled to retire today, but who has been kept in his present position until orders, by direction of the President, scoffed this afternoon at the reported interview with the Japanese Admiral Sakamaoto, classing American naval officers as brilliant at social functions, but deficient in professional training and practice.

"I don't believe Admiral Sakamoto ever made the remark" said Admiral Brownson. "I think that he has been misrepresented. As to American crews deserting, it is true that our navy suffers from some desertions in time of peace, either from home sickness, lack of activity or from other causes. But in time of war there has never been any desertions. If war should come, these men who deserted in time of peace, would be among the first to beg to be re-enlisted."

The Interstate Commerce Commission has handed down a decision reaffirming the right of interstate railways to operate "Jim Crow" cars but declaring that the accomodations for colored must be equal to those provided for white passengers. The case decided is that of Georgia Edwards, colored, who, while en route from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Dalton, Ga., on a first class ticket was forced into a separate compartment by a conductor on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway. Although based on the question of unequal accomodations, the action was brought to determine the right of an interstate carrier to discriminate against passengers on account of race. It was the first test under the new rate law. Commissioner Lane, in his opinion, said: "While the reasonableness of regulations to segregate white and colored passengers is established, it by no means follows that carriers may discriminate between white and colored passengers in the accomodations which they furnish to each. If a railroad provides certain facilities and accommodations for first class passengers of the white race, it is commanded by the law that like accomodations shall be provided for colored passengers of the same class. The principle that must govern is that the carriers must serve equally well all passengers, whether white or colored, paying the same fare. Failure to do this is discrimination, and subjects the passenger to 'undue and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage.' It will be ordered in this case that where the defendant carrier provides a wash bowl and towels in coaches devoted to the use of white passengers and a separate smoking compartment for such passengers, also, that similar accomodations shall be provided for negro passengers paying first class fare."

It is said that President Roosevelt, being now sure of the nomination of Mr. Taft, is looking toward Governor Hughes as the tail end of the ticket.

By the administration of reprimands, treasury officials believe they have found a way to settle the trouble between the whites and the negro, Woodson, in the architect's office of the treasury, who mixed up the other day in a slugging match at the washstand in the office. To dismiss any one would be to agitate a race war within the department, so Assistant Secretary Winthrop, who has investigated the matter, has about decided to tell the architects that they must be nice to one another without respect to race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Town Marshal Collins, of the Maryland village of Glen Echo, has resigned his position to take a position as salesman in his brother's store in Philadelphia. Collins achieved international distinction by recently holding up the Italian ambassador, and this government's distiguished guest, Prince Abruzzi.

Killed His Rival.

Marshall King was shot and killed on the threshold of his grandfather's home, in Franklin county, Friday evening, by Edward Saul, a rival suitor for the hand of Miss Nellie Ramsey. Each man was 22 years of age, and both had been paying attention to Miss Ramsey for a number of years. Recently Saul went to West Virginia and was absent several weeks, during which time, it is said, King made good use of the time by showering his affections on the young lady. Saul returned on Thursday and Friday after hunting rabbits, and passed the Ramsey home, where he saw King and Miss Ramsey together in the parlor. Later Saul called at King's home, and when King appeared at the door Saul shot him through the heart with a Remington rifle, killing him instantly. Saul then fled in the direction of Roanoke and was pursued by an indignant mob, but has not been captured.

The parting of a four-inch manila cable on the incline railway on the state reservation, at Nisgara Falls, about noon Saturday, when the two cars were midway up the grade, sent six people dashing at lightning speed down the runway to the rocks below. Only the masonry at the bottom of the incline prevented the cars from going into the river. In one car were four persons, and in the other two. All are so seriously injured it is feared several will die. Four of the injured sustained factured skulls.

Case Against Standard Oil Co.

Chicago, July 8.—Counsel for the Standard Oil Company will announce to Judge Landis today whether or not it wishes to introduce witnesses to testify that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana is not owned and controlled by the New Jersey corporation. It is probable that F. A. Wann, formerly general auditor of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, will return to the witness stand sometime today. He will be examined relative to the return on oil charged by the Alton road between Whiting, Ind., and East St. Louis.

There is not much likelihood that Judge Landis will impose the fine today, as he desires to learn more about the operations of the oil trust before he takes any action.

The Standard Oil Company this morning said: "Ignoring the gossip of the street and of the mob, depending upon the fundamentals of the law, we interpose no objections to the court's proceeding other than to state our innocence of violation or intent to violate the law."

The court took the assessment of fines under advisement and ordered an adjournment of the case.

Chicago, July 8.—Final judgement will be rendered in the Standard case August 3, at 10 a. m.

Peasants Uprising.

St. Petersburg, July 8.—An uprising of 2,000 peasants in the Schlusselburg district, just east of St. Petersburg, is causing the greatest concern to government authorities, and it is feared serious trouble may result. Already one clash has resulted between the peasants and troops sent against them in which the rioters were worsted and a number seriously hurt. The rioting has not stopped and there is grave danger of the trouble spreading.

Traffic on Lake Ladoga, the largest lake in Europe, has been completely tied up by the peasants. Outbreaks in lake ports which will suffer are feared.

A regiment of guards was sent today to put down the uprising. In the clash ten rioters were wounded.

The greatest fear of the authorities is that this uprising will lead to riots among working men here. Already socialistic agitators are taking advantage of the trouble to arouse labor men. A general strike would be organized if it offered any pretext.

Injured in Automobile Accident

New York, July 8,—At the point of death in Fordham Hospital, Dr. Julian P. Thomas, millionaire, athlete, clubman and aeronaut has been able to offer no explanation of the remarkable automobile accident in which he and two young women companions suffered such injuries early today that two of them may die. How Dr. Thomas met Misses Frances Haas and Alseyle Weissman, who suffered with him, or induced them to accompany him on the mad speed burst which ended so disastrously, is a mystery. Mrs. Thomas has sent word that she is on her way to see her husband. She received notice of the accident near Belair, N. J., where she is spending the summer. Physicians at Fordham say Dr. Thomas magnificient physique may pull him through with life in his body, but that he will be a hopeless cripple, as it will be necessary to amputate his right leg.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, July 8.—The tug of war in the Haywood case is on today over the admission of the last big batch of evidence impeaching Harry Orchard's story of violence by the Western Federation of Miners.

The testimony is in the form of depositions from fifteen witnesses whom it it was impossible to bring to Boise in person. Their sworn statements were taken in San Francisco and forwarded here by mail. Non-arrival of the documents forced an adjournment of the court over Saturday and Sunday.

The showing they make is said to be a strong one, and the prosecution is making a strong effort to prevent them from being admitted as evidence.

Major Dreyfus.

Paris, July 8.—Reports that Major Alfred Dreyfus is to retire from the army to which he was reinstated with honor after his long persecution and imprisonment on Devil's Island have created the greatest sensation throughout the entire nation. Since Dreyfus's return to active life in the army he has not been entirely free from unpleasant incidents owing to the feeling against him by many officers and it is believed he intends to retire. In an effort to ascertain the truth of the reports the Patrie today interviewed Madame Dreyfus. "I am unable to say anything yet," she said. This non-committal answer has strengthened the belief that Dreyfus really contemplates retiring.

Crazed by the Heat.

New York, July 8—Temporarily maddened by the heat, Milton Alvin, a plasterer on the Trust Company of America's new Wall street building, attacked his fellow workmen with a hatchet today and cut three of them down before a fourth knocked him unconscious. Two of Alvin's victims will die and a third is badly injured. Alvin was severely cut by the blow which felled him, but will recover. Alvin and his fellow workmen were working on a narrow scaffold where it was impossible for them to escape.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

To Search Deposit Box.

New York, July 8.—In the hope of finding the still missing $25,000 included in former Teller Chester B. Runyan's theft from the Windsor Trust Company, the Supreme Court ordered Mrs. Laura M. Carter's deposit box in the Liberty Safe Deposit vaults opened today. Its contents will be examined by Attorney J. J. Rallins for the Trust Company and Assistant Attorney Corriggan. Mrs. Carter asserts that she received but $5,000 from Runyan and returned it to him when she found it was stolen. Runyan is equally emphatic in the declaration that he gave her $15,000 never got it back and that $10,000 more vanished while he was in the Harlem flat with her. Detectives are also scouring the city for two men with whom Mrs. Carter was on friendly terms. It is thought possible they may have aided her in disposing of some of Runyan's money.

Telegraphers at Work.

Chicago, July 6. — Western Union telegraphers are at their keys today and there is assurance that there will be no strike at least for a week. At a meeting yesterday sentiment was strongly favoring an immediate walk out, until an announcement was received from President Small stating that the situation was considerably improved in San Francisco and that the Western Union had promised to meet a committee from the union Tuesday. Sentiment among union men here today is that Commissioner Neill should be given a week in which to continue negotiations for peace. An effort will again be made to arrange for a conference with the Western Union. If this is denied it is declared today there is little hope of avoiding a walkout next Monday.

Application Denied.

New York, July 8.—Howard Gould's application to have stricken out certain allegations in the complaint of his wife, Katharine Clemmens Gould, who is suing for a separation on the ground that they are scandalous, was today denied by Justice McCall in the Supreme Court. However, other allegations which the court held were irrelevant were ordered out of the complaint. The alleged scandalous charges Gould wished eliminated declare that Gould had his wife followed by spies and detectives wherever she went, and that he had maintained illicit and immoral relations with women of bad character. Justice McCall held that these allegations are not irrelevant.

Negro Escaped Lynching.

New York, July 8.—Wm. Curtis, a negro, narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of a crowd of men in the South Ferry subway station today. He had pushed Gateman George Metzinger in front of an approaching train and the latter's badly cut and bruised, escaped with his life. Curtis was locked up charged with assault. He attacked Metzinger because the latter tried to prevent him from riding without paying his fare. George Metzinger, the subway gateman, died later in the hospital.

Will Accept a Nomination.

St. Louis, Mo., July 8.—Jesse R. Grant, youngest son of the late President U. S. Grant, is here starting on a trip through Arkansas, Texas and further west. Grant says: "You can hardly call me a candidate. My present trip through the South is to see what the sentiment is on candidates. If the nomination should come my way, I will accept it." He says he favors tariff revision and trust regulation.

Treasure Found.

New York, July 8.— Eighteen thousand dollars in gold and silver coins has been found in a chest in the house of John Babcock, known as the "Silent Miser," who died at New Rochelle. No one knows anything of Babcock except that he was 70 years old and a civil war veteran. He lived alone. It is rumored he has two sons in New York. The police are trying to find them.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, July 8.—The market today opened with only moderate degrees of activity, and somewhat heavy in tone. The announcement of renewal of gold exports was without decided effect in sentiment. The Harriman stocks showed moderate weakness. Stocks in which Lawson interests were intensified two weeks ago made sharp advances during the first hour. A reaction that started at the end of the first hour carried prices down about one point from the high range reached soon after the opening. Other stocks showed strength, making fractional gains at first, then reacting and later rallying to the extent of 1 to 1½ points.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of ANNA M. BAUER, wife of Chas. J. Geisendaffer, who departed this life July 6th, 1901.

BY HER HUSBAND.

The Navy.

It is believed to be the purpose of the administration in ordering the big naval demonstration on the Pacific coast next winter to impress Congress with the necessity of making more adequate provision for the national defense. The dispatch of the big fleet to Pacific waters means that the government must largely increase the naval facilities on the Pacific coast.

The naval programme contemplates the establishment of a navy yard at San Diego and a great naval station at Olongapo, a harbor north of Manila.

The bureau of equipment will have a serious problem in coaling the big battleship squadron, present facilities being entirely inadequate on the coast while the colliers will require a long time for the trip.

In naval circles there is some question as to the wisdom of withdrawing the big fleet from eastern waters.

A number of Japanese employed on the fortifications at Olongapo and Cavite have been discharged.

The dispatch of the battleships has caused some excitement at Manila, but none at Tokio.

A dispatch from London says the present tension between the United States and Japan is exciting the keenest intrest among all the European diplomatists. None of them, however, believe that it will reach the stage of warfare, because the heavy burdern of debt Japan is carrying as a result of failure to obtain indemnity from Russia forbids her embarking on a similar costly enterprise in the next decade. It is recognized, nevertheless, that the United States is acquiring the enmity of Japan as one of her national assets, which may prove a handicap in the event of trouble with any other power. Great Britain finds herslef in an embarrassing position also, because she is obliged to stand between her colonies and her ally in the matter of anti Japanese laws. Transvaal has just put into operation a law regulating the entry of Asiatics, which applies to Indian subjects, as well as to the Japanese and the Chinese, and which compels them to submit to an examination and registry with thumbprints like criminals which is exceedingly irritating to them. Australia threatens legislation on the same lines. Alfred Deakin, the Australian premier, during recent visit to England repeatedly said in his speeches that the chief national question with which Australia must deal was the menace of the inflow of Japanese labor.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PUTTING THE YARD-STICK.

One year in South Carolina when the Tillman and warehouse currency crazes were at their height the Tillman adherents organized a process which they called "putting the yard-stick." They prepared a series of questions which were submitted publicly at campaign meetings to each candidate for office, great or small. The man who failed to measure up to the yard-stick exactly was put under ban and condemned to defeat, whatever his character, qualifications or record, however great his promise of usefulness might be, however sound his principles and policies on general questions. The whole country laughed at the performance, which certainly was a lamentable one, and after a little time to cool off the Tillman people themselves recognized the absurdity of it. Now the very men who were appointed to apply the yard-stick and who used to stand up at meetings and roll out the questions with great rhetorical effect do not like reference to the matter.

It is time for our friends, the prohibitionists and Anti-Saloon League, to ask themselves whether they are not coming to imitate pretty closely this Tillman scheme, which was laughed out of politics after it had been effective to the extent of retiring some of the best and ablest men in the State and putting in charge of affairs some deplorable incompetents whose only recommendation was that they would swallow the yard-stick. We observe in the Petersburg Index-Appeal a correspondence between representatives of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia and Mr. Charles T. Lassiter, candidate for the State senate. This shows that a series of six propositions was put to Mr. Lassiter formally. They include a measure to define the qualifications for voters in local option elections; to require social clubs to take out regular retail liquor license and to be subject to the Sunday and holiday laws; to require the State chemist to analyze mixtures supposed to contain intoxicants and give certificates of their contents; to bring distilleries under the Mann law; to allow wards in cities to hold local option elections; to prohibit agents or dealers in liquor from soliciting orders in dry territory; to increase the penalties for illicit liquor traffic.

In a very temperate and straightforward letter Mr. Lassiter says that he favors some of these propositions, opposes others, and as to others has no special opinion. We judge from the tone of the publication by representatives of the Anti-Saloon League that the league and its friends will oppose Mr. Lassiter. He has failed to swallow the yard-stick. We know nothing of the other candidates. They may be good men and fit to take Mr. Lassiter's place on their own merits compared with his. That is a question for the voters of the district to decide. We do know, however, that Mr. Lassiter was a very strong, capable and energetic senator. We were interested particularly in his untiring efforts in behalf of good roads in the State, which impressed us as being directed on sensible, conservative and at the same time, progressive lines. He took the lead in that matter, which in our view is the most vital and pressing now before the people of Virginia. It goes along with the other tremendously important question of immigration and bringing new people in to buy and cultivate our waste land. We cannot hope for any general influx of immigrants until we have some decent roads over which they can travel and market their products.

Speaking generally from our knowledge of Virginia people, they will be disposed to resent with some vigor the effort of the Anti-Saloon League to obtrude itself as an organization into our politics and to apply its yard-stick to candidates for important office. They will inquire with some pardonable curiosity by what right Mr. J. W. West, secretary, undertakes to be the judge of the qualifications of senators and representatives and whether he possesses any overpowering qualifications which give him authority to lay his yard-stick against a man, demanding that he measure up to the last fraction of its inches or be retired to private life. They will wish to know whether we are to send to our legislature representatives bound and tied by the Anti-Saloon League, representing its policies and purposes to the last detail or whether they shall send thoughtful and well-informed men who may be trusted to vote and act on all matters according to their honest judgments of what is needed for the welfare of people and State.—[Richmond News-Leader, July 3.

MR. CARLIN THE NOMINEE.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, the democratic committee of the Eighth Congressional district met in this city on Saturday and declared Mr. C. C. Carlin the party's nominee for Congress. The meeting was held at the office of Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, and there were present Messrs. George S. Shackelford, chairman, of Orange; Raleigh T. Green of Culpeper, Thomas H. Lion of Manassas, Greenville Gaines of Warrenton and Gardner L. Boothe of Alexandria.

The following are the official proceedings of the meeting as given out by the secretary:

The committee having met pursuant to a resolution passed on June 28, in answer to the petition of Judge C. E. Nicol, the following resolutions were passed:

Whereas Judge Nicol has failed to appear to produce any evidence to sustain the charges referred to by him in his petition: and

Whereas no other candidate or person has appeared in answer to Judge Nicol's petition to produce any evidence of any description to discredit the methods of any of the candidates for the said Congressional nomination in the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia, or the methods of their friends; therefore

Be it resolved, That this committee entirely exonerates all of the candidates from the charge of improper methods used in said primary election; be it further

Resolved, In pursuance of the authority vested in us by the democratic party of the State of Virginia, we hereby proclaim C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, Va., the nominee of the democratic party of the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia, at the election to be held to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Hon. John F. Rixey; and

Be it further resolved, That a committee, consisting of Messrs. Grenville Gaines and Raleigh T. Green is hereby appointed to notify Mr. C. C. Carlin of his nomination.

The meeting then adjourned.

DANCE.

The second of the series of dances to be given every other week during the summer came off at the Golf Club house on Saturday night and was quite largely attended, among the guests being a number of out-of-town people. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. George S. French and Mrs. Anthony W. Armstrong. One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was a Virginia reel in which all present joined. Among the out-of-town guests were Misses Helen Gill, Emma Dent Cosby, Winifred Rogers, Lucille Derol, Messrs. William Waggaman, Robert Davis and Everett Bonton, of Washington, Cadet Theodore Chase, of the U. S. M. A., West Point, and Mr. Winfield Jones, of Atlanta. Next Saturday night a card party will be given at the club, and the following Saturday another dance. As these entertainments are given by the club, all members are cordially invited to come and are given the privilege of asking any out-of-town friends that they may wish to bring. The club is now in a very flourishing condition, quite a number of new members having joined this summer, one of whom is Maj. David Rumbough, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Myer.

HOT SUNDAY.

The temperature yesterday kept many people within doors, especially during the afternoon when the mercury was hovering about the 90° mark. There had been a refreshing shower after midnight Saturday night, which was accompanied by a cooling northwest breeze, but the wind ceased with the rainfall and torrid conditions were in evidence early yesterday morning. The sun's rays became fierce as the day grew older, and in the afternoon but few people were moving about the streets, shady places generally having been sought. The excursion steamers and trolley cars transported large numbers of persons during the day. The passengers were mostly from Washington. There was a perceptible falling off in church attendance by reason of the heat and the fact that many residents are at this time of the year out of the city. There were showers of rain about nine o'clock at night, accompanied by some thunder and lightning.

PHYSICIAN SUED.

Dr. James W. Herbert, a surgeon, who lives at 634 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Washington, was made a defendant Saturday in the District Supreme Court, in a suit for $10,500 damages filed by Mrs. Sarah E. Deeton. Mrs. Deeton tells the court that she received a fracture of the thigh bone on December 4, 1905, and was placed under the treatment of Dr. Herbert. She alleges that by reason of the physician's negligence and lack of skill she became maimed and crippled.

Gift from President Roosevelt.

The lectern which President Roosevelt will present to old Bruton Parish Church at Williamsburg, to support the Bible which King Edward will give, has been completed and accepted. It is the work of J. Stewart Barney, of New York. Rising from a symbolic base is the angel of peace, a draped form whose upraised hands and folded wings support the desk of the lectern. The figure stands on a globe, with one foot resting on Great Britain and the other on the United States. The globe itself is supported by the British lion and the American eagle. Between these figures is the coat-of-arms of the English Washington family.

Each of the three tablets at the base of the lectern bears an inscription. On that to the front are the words, "To the Glory of God." The tablet to the right bears the legend, "And Commemorative of the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Permanent Establishment of English Civilization in America. 1607—1907." On the other tablet are the words, "Presented by Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States."

Bruton Parish Church is the second oldest church in America and has been the longest in continuous use. It was begun in 1710 and finished in 1715, and succeeded the old Jamestown church as the court church of Virginia.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dirrahoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Lerdbeater & Son's drug store.

Rebates and Reunions.

The Presbyterian reunion, the first of the four big church gatherings scheduled to be held at Pen-Mar Park this summer, will take place on Thursday, July 11. There will be the usual business meeting at 11:30 o'clock in the morning, and the reunion exercises proper will be held in the large tabernacle, beginning at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be two fixed addresses—"Diluted Presbyterianism," by Rev. E. T. Jeffers, president of York Collegiate Institute, York, Pa., and "The Emphasis in Ideal Education," by Rev. Dr. J. Gray McAllister, president of the Hampden-Sidney College, Virginia.

By some it is believed that the reunions of the various churches which have been held annually at Pen Mar for many years will cease with this summer, on account of the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which compels railroads to refrain from giving rebates or commissions to the different committees. These rebates have been the only source of revenue for the committees conducting the reunions. This being withdrawn, the committees will either have to look elsewhere for funds or cease their work. It is stated that after this year's gatherings there will not remain in the treasury of the Presbyterian reunion committee a sum sufficient to warrant the holding of a gathering next year.

Girl Assaulted.

Elizabeth Medegar, 14 years old, the young daughter of prominent and wealthy residents of West Newton, Pa., near Pittsburg, was assaulted Saturday night by a man for whom the authorities and three posses of citizens are now searching. One of the posses, headed by relatives of the girl, is heavily armed and a lynching is threatened. The girl is under the care of physicians, and her condition is critical. The assault occurred at an old quarry in a woods near the girl's home, where she was found almost dead several hours later by persons who chanced to pass the place. From the Medegar girl's description of her assailant the authorities are said to be satisfied of his identity and are searching for an alleged dissolute character, who has suddenly disappeared.

A Great Gas Well.

Independence, Kan., July 8.—A telephone message from Caney announces the greatest gas well ever drilled in the western country. It was drilled by Owen and Wasson for the Lanyon Zinc Company, on a lease one mile north of the great gasser developed last year, but discounts that well two to one. It blew away three sections of an eighty-foot derrick, along with the heavy tools. As near as it could be gauged, the well has a capacity of from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 feet a day. Only one other well ever drilled, the Big Moses, in West Virginia, can approach this record.
